

Golden Lotus Foundation
2017 Best of Colorado Springs Award

September 6, 2018

Hello GLF Members, Family & Friends,

YOU ARE INVITED to a spectacular event happening in downtown Colorado Springs, Saturday September 8, 2018, 10 am - 4 pm, with Golden Lotus Foundation and many other organizations for music, food and fun for Everybody Welcome and Imagination Celebration What IF? Festival. GLF booth will be situated with the Pikes Peak Diversity Council, Inc, #10 on the area map and booth #10, on the grassy area east of Pikes Peak Center bordering Cascade Avenue and Colorado Blvd. GLF will feature an art show of original Tai Chi Art by artist Kevin Osborne. Tai Chi Art can be purchased, as well as many blossom and loose leaf teas. GLF will be soliciting your donations for the Asian Pioneers Plaque Fund with a complimentary handmade train whistle by the Pikes Peak Whittlers, Safeway Community Giving Gift Cards, and $5 Merchant Cards. Stop by for a FREE Bottled Water with your new or renewal GLF 2019 Membership!

We hope you have enjoyed the many annual Asian events throughout the summer. Here are additional events you may be interested to attend.

Information: Lecture Presentation - Lafcadio Hearn by Naomi Westcott. Lafcadio Hearn (1850 - 1904), also known by his Japanese name Koizumi Yakumo, was a journalist and international writer known best for his books about Japanese culture, legends and folk tales, especially his retelling of Japanese ghost stories. His 14 books about pre-modern Japan are very much part of Japanese culture, because they had not been recorded in English or Japanese before his books were published. Naomi Westcott has traveled to Hearn related places in Greece, Ireland, US, and Japan, following his footsteps and getting to know his family and scholars. She will talk about the life and work of Lafcadio Hearn, places that inspired his writings, the interest and revival of his work, and museums and libraries dedicated to Lafcadio Hearn.
