Community Partnership

Golden Lotus Foundation with Colorado College English Department presented a Watch Party at the Pikes Peak Library District, Cheyenne Branch for a virtual discussion with Satsuki Ina, attended nationally and internationally, hosted by Professor Brandon Shimoda on November 20, 2025 for the Visiting Writers Series. Satsuki shared her readings from her book, The Poet and the Silk Girl (Heyday, 2024) on her parents' incarceration and her birth in the Tule Lake segregation center, during WWII in Northern California. Satsuki spoke to the intergenerational trauma passed on to family members long after the effects of racial injustice. For complete link recording, <https://t.ly/FEvrR>.

Impact Recognition

Windy Pines Foundation

presented Golden Lotus Foundation with a $10,000 grant in recognition to continue intergenerational opportunities towards building a more inclusive and diverse community.

Save the Date

Ann DeGuzman, Colorado College Bonner Intern, has initiated her capstone project, Asian Night Market, September 10, 11 & 12, 2026 and is requesting community support and volunteers.
